THE COMFORTER.

Quirk.—Good morning, friend Parcel! how are you to-day?
You look rather grim: are goods fallen, I pray?
Parcel.—No, I've got a bad cold, and some head-achy pains, Which I think of even more than my losses or gains.
Quirk.—Aye, a bad cold! that's common; I'm happy to hear it, And hope it may last you some time, sir; don't fear it.
Parcel.—What! the devil you do! you're a friend, sir, indeed, And I very much thank you, in this time of need.
You might take other measures to dissipate gloom—or Find some other butt for your singular humor.
Quirk.—No, no friend, I'm serious on this occasion, But still my remark may require explanation; I've often observed, and sincerely believe it, That nature is kind when we do not perceive it: And oft when our heads are beclouded and muddy, (Perhaps the effect of wine, porter and toddy) When dull and inert, the blue devils assail us, And genius and wit, and vivacity fail us, A bad cold sets in, and by blowing and sneezing, We throw off these ills, so perplexing and teasing. The brain is over-charged, and explosion must shock it, Till the megrims are safely convey'd to the pocket. Clear the brain, and the intellect brightens of course, And the man is all better; and never the worse!
Tis true, my dear sir, and pray don't think me bold, No doubt you stood greatly in need of a cold!
Parcel.—Are you sure these are facts?
Quirk.—They're beyond all dispute, Man wanting this blessing is dull as a brute; But throw off this load, and his spirits all lighten, His genius, his wit and abilities brighten. Ask your friend Doctor Bolus, he's fam'd for his learning—Is sound, philosophic, and shrewd, and discerning. You will thank me, dear sir, for this happy discovery. [recovery.] How joyful your friends will all hail your recovery.

The sketches of Chateaubriand during his travels in Greece, Palestine, Egypt and Barbary, may please the enthusiastic reader. We copy the following.

Catskill Recorder.
SPARTA.—Sparta was then before me; and its theatre to which my good fortune conducted me on my first arrival, gave me immediately the positions of all the quarters and edifices. I alighted and ran up the hill of the citadel. Just as I reached the top, the sun was rising behind the hills of Manalona. What a magnificent spectacle! but how melancholy! The solitary stream of the Eurotas running beneath the remains of the bridge Babux; ruins on every side, and not a creature to be seen among them. I stood motionless, in a kind of stupor at the contemplation of this scene; or a mixture of admiration and grief checked the current of my thoughts, and fixed me to the spot; profound silence reigned around me. Determined at least to make echo speak in a spot where the human voice is no longer heard, I shouted with all my might, "Leonidas! Leonidas!" No ruin repeated this great name, and Sparta herself seemed to have forgotten her hero.

"The whole cite of Lacedemon is uncultivated—the sun parches it in silence, and is incessantly consuming the marble of the tombs. When I beheld this desert, not a plant adorned the ruins, not a bird, not an insect, not a creature enlivened them, save millions of lizards, which crawled without noise up and down the sides of the scorching walls. A dozen half wild horses were feeding here and there upon the withered grass; a shepherd was cultivating a few water melons in the corner of the theatre; and at Magoula, which gives its dismal name to Lacedemon, I observed a small grove of cypresses. But this Magoula, formerly a considerable Turkish village, has also perished in this scene of desolation—its buildings are overthrown, and the index of ruin itself but a ruin."

ALEXANDRIA:

MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1817.

From the Boston Evening Intelligencer, September 27.

Commissioners under the Treaty of Ghent.—The commissioners under the fourth article of the treaty of Ghent, to determine whether the islands of Passamaguddy bay, are included in the boundaries established by the treaty of 1783, assembled in this town according to adjournment on the 25th inst. The arguments of Ward Chipman, Esq. agent for the English, & of James T. Austin, Esq. agent to the American commission, will be delivered at the present session in reply to the statements which were respectively interchanged last June. Whether the commissioners will then make up their opinion, or the agents receive another hearing is yet uncertain. The commissioners under the fifth article do not meet until the 10th of May next.

We hear that a gentleman has lately arrived in this metropolis, who crossed the continent of America from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean. He left the settlement at Columbia river, which empties into the South Sea in lat. 40° 18', and lon. 236° 34', in the month of April last, and penetrating the forests in nearly McKenzie's route, arrived at some of the hunting settlements of the English N. Western Company, in the course of a little more than three months. Thence he came through Canada to Boston. We have not learned any particulars, or events of interest which took place during the journey.

It is mentioned in a Boston paper, that Mr. DASHKOFF, the Russian minister, is about to return home, and that he is to be succeeded in his present functions by Baron TYLL.

A Philadelphia paper also says "We learn from an authentic source that his majesty the emperor of Russia has been pleased to promote Mr. DASHKOFF, his minister near the United States, to the rank of colonel."

The British frigate La Pique has been spoken of from Vera Cruz to Jamaica, with ninety tons of specie on board. A million of dollars will weigh about thirty tons.

From the N. Y. Daily Advertiser.

SHIPWRECK.
Mr. Lockhart, a passenger in the Speculation informs, that while he was at St. Thomas, a vessel had arrived there from St. Vincent, and reported that a violent hurricane had visited that island on the 1st of August, which had driven many vessels on shore.

Mr. L. has favored us with the Royal Gazette, of Nassau, of September 30, from which we have extracted the following.

The brig Merrimack, from Havana, bound to New-York, was wrecked at Florida. The cargo was nearly all lost. The master and crew had taken passage in one of the wreckers bound to Nassau. The ship Unity, Lamorne, from Jamaica for London, has been totally lost at Florida; the cargo except about 60 puncheons of rum, was lost. The crew of the ship went on board of the ship John Vaux, bound to London, which had grounded within the Florida Reef, but was got off with the assistance of the wrecking vessels and towed to sea. Report states that two ships from Jamaica bound to Great Britain were lost on the Caymans, one of them probably the Sisters, Swiney, as Alexander Milne Esq. who was a passenger in the Sisters is said to have been on board the John when at Florida.

Savannah, Sept. 25.
The following are extracts which we have received from St. Mary's.

"PRECIOUS CONFESIONS."
"One of the principal leaders of Ferdinandina comes out with the following confessions: 'That his friends want only Ferdinandina and Pensacola, as ports to fit out privateers and bring in prizes, and that they are very indifferent as to the fate of the rest of the Floridas—that if the inhabitants will keep themselves at home, or will not act with hostility towards them, they may remain or promise their allegiance to whom they please.'"

"After the long shot, and of course unsuccessful attack lately made by the Spaniards, to drive the invaders from Ferdinandina, it is probable that these people will hold that place until removed by the U. S. Several privateers and prizes have arrived within a few days, with motley crews, and more expected. "Apprehensions being entertained that Spanish commerce will not afford the patriotism of so many privateers (as are expected and will be fitted out) sufficient employment, it is said that the republic talk of declaring war against Portugal."

St. Mary's, Sept. 16.
"Since the embargo and non-intercourse laws were in force we have had dull, very dull times. No vessels, no goods, and not much smuggling. The grass and weeds have grown very high in our streets, and some venomous snakes have been killed in them. Things are now, however, looking up; thanks to general sir Gregor MacGregor, and his generous countrymen. In thanking sir Gregor, however, we do not mean to let out with the good folks now at Ferdinandina, whatever he, and the squeamish off-cers who came with him, may have thought proper to have done. Buzza for liberty.

To the editors of the Nat. Intelligencer. Red River Indian Agency, Natchitoches August 27.

GENTLEMEN.—Herewith I enclose you copies of intercepted despatches, which were delivered to one of our traders by some Comanche Indians, who state that they killed the bearers of them between St. Antonio de Baxar and Labahie.

These despatches give an account, in detail, of the unfortunate fate of the gallant colonel Perry and major Gordon, (late a lieutenant in the United States' rifle corps) and forty-two Americans, at the Cowpens, in the vicinity of Labahie. Also, a detail of the operations of the Royalists, under the command of general Arredondo, and the Patriots, commanded by general Mina, at and in the vicinity of Soto la Marina. Notwithstanding the Patriots have sustained a great loss in the fall of the fort at Soto la Marina, (which contained all their war munitions) and notwithstanding the Royalists claim a great victory over Mina, he (Mina) is pursuing the object of his campaign, whilst the enemy is sending back for reinforcements; and has already penetrated as far as Esperdee Santo, and in a few days more will effect a junction with general Victoria. This opinion is very much strengthened by the fact of his being already in a thick settled country of friends to the republican cause. The publication of the document which relates to the fall of colonel Perry and his detachment, will inform their relations and friends of their fate, and at the same time it may afford them some consolation to know they died in the cause of freedom.

I have the honor to be, Respectfully, your obt. servt. JOHN JAMISON, Ind. A.

Translation of document No. 1.
Don Antonio Maria Martinis, lieut. col. of the royal armies, decorated with the cross of the North of Germany, civil military governor of the province of Texas, New Philippines, &c.

I certify, that Don Francisco de la Haza, lieutenant of the first veteran company of Labahie cavalry, having marched from this capital on an expedition, by my orders, I directed him to Labahie on the 18th June inst, in order to pursue with a detachment of one hundred men, on the road of the interior of this province, a party of forty-four factions Americans, commanded by colonel Perry, who had disembarked on these coasts with hostile intentions, under the command of the traitor Mina; which officer, complying with the greatest exactness with the instructions I had given him, overtook and attacked them at the dawn of the 19th instant, at a place called the Two Cowpens, and completely routed them, taking fourteen prisoners, of whom twelve were dangerously wounded, and leaving twenty-six dead upon the field of battle, and among them the above named col. Perry and major Gordon. In this action lieut. de la Haza was severely wounded, having displayed not only the greatest valor, but superior military knowledge; and that he may make it appear on all suitable occasions, and obtain the reward of his services, I give these presents, which I have signed at Baxar, this 25th of June, 1817.

ANTONIO MARTINES.

Journal of operations of the army of gen. Arredondo against the fort at Soto la Marina, and its surrender.

Monteslay, June 19.
By letters from the army of the 8th inst. at Patoalto, seven leagues from La Morina, it is ascertained that they were marching with several hundred excellent infantry, and twelve pieces of artillery, and upwards of a thousand cavalry, to attack the rebels who were there; that the same number of infantry and four hundred cavalry, under the command of colonel Arminan, were to have beaten, before that time, the rebel Mina, for that officer had just given official information that he was in pursuit of this wretch, and very near having already passed the mouth of the bay, in the direction of Guastaca; but that, at all events, his design was to pursue him at all hazards, and we shall soon be informed of the result of this expedition. That the main body, under the command of general Arredondo, would accomplish this expedition, by destroying those who remained at Soto la Marina with father Mier and commandant Sarda Auditor I. fante and secretary Vazose. These wretches have burned the towns on their passage from San Jose—have ravaged the whole of La Marina. Shutting themselves up in a fort, where they have cannon of a large calibre, bombs, grenades, arms and ammunition of all kinds, they, within a few days, despatched a party of fifty or sixty men by the coast of the Refuge, as it is said, with a view to bring on Gutierrez, (general Bernardo) whom they expect to seduce, and alarm the people of the country; and another of equal numbers by Bererando and Freese, to chastise Paredes; and Don Felipe de la Garga and Don Loucian Garcia are in pursuit of them with one hundred and twenty men each. The frigate Sabine, with the Bellona and Prosperie, returned a second time to the bar of Soto la Marina; as the commandant of the former has officially made known, and it is ascertained, he burnt one of their vessels and took a brig; by this means no ship will dare to enter, and their retreat is cut off. The vice-roy has given repeated orders to pardon none to put all to the sword, since they continue in their obstinacy. The nearer we approach them, the less information have we of their situation; but we are every day insulted with printed proclamations, which they promulgate whenever they catch our people. It will not be long before captain Villaverde, with a hundred men of Ceo-ra-orda, and also a regiment of more than a thousand men, will effect their union with the army; this will completely undeceive our secret enemies.

At 5 o'clock, this afternoon, (June 10) the army of Arredondo arrived at San Jose, 2 leagues distant from Soto la Marina, and to-morrow (11th) will commence its operations, by placing itself within cannon shot.

June 20.
By letters from the army of 13th inst. at a distance of three quarters of a league above Soto la Marina, it is said, as follows, viz: On the 10th, at 2 o'clock in the morning, we came in sight of the fort of that town, and in three quarters of an hour the enemy opened their fire upon us, and although our van guard advanced within 300 paces, and they fired canister, no injury was done the whole day. On the 11th we erected a battery of 4 pieces, from 4 to 8 pounders, which opened on them very early in the morning; they continued to fire grenades without any particular accuracy.

This day arrived in camp four captains and lieutenants, prisoners to Don Felipe de la Garges, and captain Castro, who routed a party of forty of the enemy, killing a captain and several Americans bringing in various prisoners with others taken in the vicinity of the fort, having already thirty, with the rogues of the country who have been imprisoned. On the 12th the captain commandant of artillery, and another of fusileers presented themselves for pardon.

A pretty constant fire has been kept up on our part, and they have answered it. On day, 13th, the enemy's fire has been very remiss, and now, at 10 o'clock at night, they have fired two cannon shot, for they might have perceived that we are erecting a battery within musket shot to open upon them to-morrow, to force this fort to surrender, which contains the greatest villains of the party of Mina—an immense quantity of horned cattle, horses and mules, has been taken from them, which they fed under the fort, by lieutenant colonels Sarda and Garza and captain Elguisabal Darios, and many other officers, who even quarrelled among themselves which shall go out against the enemy.

June 23, at 10 o'clock.
By despatches from the general, dated 16th instant, in his head quarters at Soto la Marina, it appears that he entered the fort which the rebels had erected, and was surrendered by them with the remaining prisoners at discretion, together with the disenchanted bishop, father Mier; that he found in the fort a great quantity of arms, ammunition and clothing, of which an inventory was to be made.

June 26th.
By express from San Luis Potosi, we are officially informed, that the colonel of the regiment of Estramadura Arminan overtook Mina in the field of San Jose, near the Haironda of Peotillas, not far from Malaguala, and although the latter drew up in order, and was determined to die combatting—after a battle of three hours and a half he was completely routed, and if the cavalry of Rio Vendas had not fallen into disorder, and flying back, broke the infantry, they would probably have exterminated the rabble, which the troops of Surragoda Talamego and New Hiscay were still pursuing; from which it is believed that Mina is going to unite with the rebels of Bario Lagos, who are under the direction of the Curate Torres and Moreno.

Further account of the capture of the Republican fort at Soto la Marina, and the battle between Arminan and Mina.

After three or four days cannonading on both sides, and the consumption on our part of an immense quantity of ammunition, so that we had but five or six rounds left, and that for this reason we were resolved to assault the fort, the besieged demanded a parley, and surrendered in number about two hundred, and among them Piere, (said to be late a major in the 44th U. S. infantry,) and Father Mier, on condition that their lives should be spared, and in other respects at the discretion of the Vice Roy, to whom the principal prisoners have been sent by the way of Attamania, escorted by capt. Don Felix Cavallos. They had about ten or twelve killed, besides the wounded. The commandant of artillery, another captain and a subaltern contributed very much to the reduction of the place; having already joined our side, they manoeuvred in it with skill, and effected what they had promised. These officers joined us in the following manner: Lt Col Don Philip De la Garga took a captain prisoner; as he was about to be executed, he entreated the general to permit him to write to two above named—that if they did not come over, he would submit to be shot; but if they came he should be pardoned, and it was done.

The plunder is very great; twelve pieces of artillery, two mortars, more than two hundred barrels of powder, more than two thousand stand of arms, pistols, swords, so that they declare that a thousand mules would not be sufficient to transport them. Bat Mina had already separated from them, and fled; but the regiment of Estramadura overtook him, as you will see by the annexed report of its colonel Arminan. It appears to have been the same day, about eleven.

I do not know if there is any thing new this afternoon. I had forgot to mention the result of the action on a part of our army. It is said there were killed two of the regulars, two of the corps of Ferdinand the 7th, one of the cavalry, and upwards of sixty wounded, and among them five officers, to wit: Lt. Col. Bionia and Don Philip De la Garga, by a grape in the face, and Lt. Col. Maneno with a ball; also, Madena, shot through badly, and Don Manuel Bargas, the youngest son of Lady Mayora, slightly on the ear; yet something more is presumed, and the wounded are dying off. Nothing is said of the army; when it will retire, nor whither. It is now six in the evening.

UCARTE.

Official report of Arminan, Colonel of the regiment of Estramadura.

After having marched very near 13 leagues, I overtook the perverse Mina who received me with his columns formed. I instantly attacked him, but found myself engaged with a division of the enemy who came determined to die slaughtering. I ordered the cavalry of Reuverde, of six hundred horses, to advance; but that corps fell back upon the infantry in the utmost disorder, and completely breaking their lines, and flying, notwithstanding the greatest efforts of the chiefs and officers to restrain them. Notwithstanding all that, I routed them completely, after an action of three hours and a half. Soon after came up the provincial infantry of Ceiragenda and Talansing, to complete their route, and pursue the wretches, who have taken the road to Venado. The little cavalry of the east corps is entirely on foot, and this deprives me of the opportunity to exterminate the enemy. I hope to deserve from your excellency a fresh supply of two hundred horses, in order, with this reinforcement, to finish with this rabble.

Camp of San Jose, June 16th, 1817.
BENETO ARMINAN.
Addressed to Don Manuel Maria de Torres.

From Cotacene they say as follows, to wit:
We are surrounded with disgust, Arminan having overtaken the rebel Mina at Peotelas, and gave him battle; but at the first fire his cavalry broke and gave way, and he remained with three hundred men of the regiment of Estramadura, so that the two armies closed with each other, and about two hundred and upwards fell on each side. We are assured that Arminan is in pursuit of him, with the forces he had behind; but it is said that Mina has passed Hedionda, as far as Esperdee Santo.

Copy of a letter from a respectable source, dated Lagaira, 4th September, 1817.

"Great changes have taken place here, both as regards the local government of the province, and general political state of the country. The late notorious captain General Moro, has been removed from the government, by order of the General in Chief, Morillo, and Pando, late governor of Cumana, appointed in his place, who has made considerable changes under him—the late Captain General's conduct has been generally reprobated as tyrannical and oppressive, and marked by a prodigal waste of the public resources, which did not fail to draw on him and his administration, the indignation and disapprobation of the public—he left here a short time since for Porto Rico—the new Captain General is spoken favorably of, but how far he may succeed, (in the present state of the country) in producing confidence and unanimity, remains to be proved—it will be an extremely arduous if not impossible task.

The late operations of the contending parties are still more important.—The boasted expedition lately arrived from Spain, with Morillo and his forces, who were speedily to effect a pacification of the province, have only disgraced themselves.

They were joined by General Morillo, commander in chief, with all his disposable forces at Cumana, the latter part of June last, and after mature preparation, made with their united forces, an attack on Margarita, held by the Patriots. They effected a landing with some loss, and in several succeeding actions gained some advantage as to ground, but not without suffering much in killed and wounded, and by disease—an action was fought about the 14th ult. in which Morillo and his forces were completely defeated, and obliged precipitately to abandon the Island and re-embark his troops for Cumana, though not without great loss. Since then, part of his transports have arrived here, 6000 troops for Caracas, and a great number of wounded and sick.

General Morillo is now at Cumana, and is stated, with a division of army, to be destined for Guyana, another for the interior of this province, where the Patriots are in force.

In the mean time the Patriots have made great progress in Terra Firme, having gained possession of Augustus, and the greater part of the province of Bolivar, Piar, and Cedeno, large forces are collected—and in this province, near the valley of Varenas, a large army under general Arismendi threaten the capital—which by a junction with part of the forces of Bolivar, will be able to contend with the whole of the forces of Morillo. The Spaniards appear alarmed and disheartened; they wish to excuse Morillo's defeat by saying, his presence in the army was necessary on the continent, true it was, and with all his forces they are far from feeling secure. You can scarcely imagine the effect those combined causes have at present on commerce. Nothing is doing. Sale of imports can be effected, except in articles of first necessity, and they only at retail very slow—no one will speculate—a complete stagnation prevails, except in some exports, which continue scarce and high.

The measures of government calculated to destroy confidence, create dissatisfaction. Necessity compels them, in order to the transportation of troops, provisions, &c. to arbitrary and tyrannical in the cases, vessels, mules, provisions, &c. thing become pressed into public service, and for which the owner receives no remuneration. They are at the mercy of the commander in chief, and his order is law; to disobey would subject them to severe punishment.

The North Americans find here present no very flattering reception. The Spaniards are greatly prejudiced against them, owing to an idea of a valent of a number of armed vessels fitted from the United States, cruising under the Patriot flag. This prejudice was strongly exemplified in the unjust detention of an American schooner near the harbor of Lay Cava, and her shameful condemnation at Puerto Cavello. The vessel in question, being on a fair voyage, and bound with a cargo of provisions, to another port within their port. Their tyranny did not stop there. The signer, an American citizen, for some time residing in Lay Guyra, was nominously thrown into prison at Puerto Cavello, for defending his property and daring to call in question the illegal proceedings of a court judge; for which injustice and indignity, although the act is not condoned by the government, no reparation has been made. Surely the government of the United States notice so flagrant an outrage of rights, dignity, and liberty of its citizens. A single frigate here be sufficient to bring them to a sense of what is due to the dignity and honorable and just nation.

Land for Sale.

IF early application is made, I will dispose of 400 acres of the CEDAR GROVE tract of land. There is surplus timber and fire wood enough on the part I purpose selling to pay, with judicious management, more than half the purchase money, at the price I ask. The situation is healthy, and the land fertile. Contiguity to market is also among its advantages; it being within less than a mile of Mr. Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price may be had for grain. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber, residing at Cedar Grove, ten miles below Alexandria, and one below Janney's mill.
sept. 20 EDGAR McCARTY.

For Sale,

A tract of Land containing 357 acres, more or less, lying on Occoquan Bay in the county of Fairfax and state of Virginia, adjoining the lands of Robert I. Thompson and William Mason. It is presumed those desirous of purchasing will view the land and for themselves judge of its peculiar advantages. One third of the purchase money will be required in hand, the balance at 12, or 18 months, with a deed of trust to secure the payments.

This farm lies in the centre of an excellent neighborhood—its lands are situated abundantly watered, and has upon it an ample proportion of wood. The soil is naturally strong, and a considerable portion of it has for some years past been cultivated according to the most approved rules of modern husbandry. A NEW DAILY AND THRICE A WEEK PAPER

At the Seat of Government.

THE people of the United States are respectfully informed that in October next, there will be issued at the city of Washington, a daily and thrice a week newspaper, entitled

THE CITY OF WASHINGTON GAZETTE.

Price, Daily, Ten Dollars per annum; and Thrice a Week, (viz. Monday, Wednesday and Friday) Five Dollars per annum: To be published every afternoon at two o'clock.

Important public documents and state papers will be printed at full length; a competent reporter will be employed to furnish the proceedings of Congress for the Gazette; and all interesting articles of intelligence will be carefully selected and published.

PROSPECTUS.

The Editor of the WASHINGTON CITY WEEKLY GAZETTE, from the patronage he has already received, and the encouragement he is promised, intends, in October next, to publish a daily paper, and one three times a week. To the prosecution of this undertaking he has also been urged by other causes, perhaps equally powerful. When the extraordinary increase of population in the United States, and, of course, the augmented demand for information from the seat of government, are taken into consideration, and the fact, that, in the eastern section of the District of Columbia, embracing a population of near twenty thousand inhabitants, there is but one daily paper, the necessity and importance of an additional one must at once be obvious. Whatever may be the estimation in which Washington is held, as to mercantile transactions and information, by those at a distance, it must be allowed, by all who know it, to be the greatest focus of political intelligence in the U. States; and the first point from which must emanate all the information of the country in relation to our political transactions. Much transpires that is lost for the want of a proper vehicle of communication, that would preserve its independence in reviewing the operations of the government; and many measures of importance are permitted to slumber amid the rubbish of legislative business, because they are not duly considered or properly displayed. In the hurry of, and perhaps, we might also say, the inattention sometimes paid to legislative affairs of the country, it often happens that measures of a dangerous political tendency, or, at least, of injurious consequences to the nation, are adopted with but little opposition, because those consequences have not been fully developed by the press at the seat of government, and this cannot be done by a journal issuing seldom more than once a day or three times a week. The one already in existence at this place, however well conducted, is not sufficient for this purpose, because the press of political matter during the session is so great that one daily journal cannot embrace the whole, and much must therefore be lost.

In addition to this, it may be remarked, that, the columns of the National Intelligencer are devoted, almost exclusively to the proceedings and debates of the popular branch of the national legislature, whilst those of the senate are neglected, or forgotten. This exclusion of the transactions of so dignified and important a branch of our government, from the public eye, has long been a subject of regret and complaint to the people of this country, and, indeed, to the Senate itself. Some efforts have been made to gratify the nation, by a full display of the proceedings of this branch of the legislature, but those efforts have uniformly failed; and have failed, not from the want of proper encouragement and patronage, but from causes it is not necessary here to develop. From the nature of things, one press, alone, cannot give full detail of the debates and proceedings of both houses of Congress. To one, therefore, an exclusive attention has, hitherto been paid, to the almost entire neglect of the other. The Editor will, however, labor to obviate this inconvenience and remedy this evil, and endeavor to give the nation an accurate daily report of the proceedings of the national legislature, avoiding all partiality and preference of one branch to the other.

The political path he has hitherto pursued will evince his independence, and, he trusts, satisfy his patrons that no sacrifice of truth or political integrity shall ever be made at the shrine of party feeling. He will endeavor to render his journal as free from party bickering and animosity as possible, while, at the same time, the principles it inculcates shall be decidedly republican and patriotic.

As the humble guardian of the public weal, he will occasionally use the privilege he has a right to exercise, in expressing his temperate disapprobation of such measures of the government as he may think injurious to the interests of the country. If those opinions should sometimes be erroneous, he wishes them to be ascribed to the common fallibility of human judgment, which cannot be always in the right. As far as it may be possible, he will labor to be impartial; for what he can do, within his humble sphere, shall be done for the good of the country, and if he fails, he will console himself with the reflection that he has discharged his duty to the utmost of his ability and power.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is found or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite. Sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS, is recommended.

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature are more in favour of a medicine than the laudations of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason to believe that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are calculated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness of the stomach and severe head-ache—ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions. To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders, Violent cramps in Consumptions, the stomach and Lowness of spirits, back Loss of appetite, Indigestion Impurity of blood, Melancholy Hysterical affections, Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses, Pains in the limbs and debility, Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin: freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Toothache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
